UNITED STATES' POSITION ON PRESENCE OF DEFENDANT AT SUPPRESSION HEARING

Following the Court's hearing yesterday, the United States consulted both the relevant CDC guidelines about the approach taken for adults who have recovered from a COVID-19 diagnosis as well as the United States Marshals Service regarding the policies of Pamunkey Regional Jail. In keeping with CDC guidelines, should the defendant experience symptoms consistent with COVID-19 that are not otherwise explainable, he will be tested by Pamunkey Regional Jail. The United States does not believe that a Court mandated test prior to the hearing is necessary and does not oppose the defendant's presence in the courtroom for the suppression hearing.

Respectfully submitted,
